$1.00 Each.

WINDOW DISPLAY BROAD STREET.

We haven't as many of them as we'd like to have, because it's the biggest shirt bargain of the season and our share was only a few hundred.

We have all sizes, however, in about ten styles and what we lack in quantity is more than made up in quality.

A manufacturer of high-grade shirts deciding to close out business is the cause of the unusual offering this early in the summer.

Fine Madras in the newest shades of Blue, Gray and Tan; also, neat Black and White stripes.
Plain White, Satin stripe Madras.
New Panama Cloths, in White, Blue and Tan.

Many of the shirts are made coat fashion—the ideal style for summer.

Attached or detached cuffs. Each shirt nicely laundered.

The garments are all 1905 patterns, and as we said above, there have been no shirts seen in Richmond this summer equal in value to equal these at—

$1.00.

May Manton Patterns 10c. each, on sale in Trimming department, by mail 12c.

FOUR V. P. I. BOYS WITH WESTINGHOUSE COMPANY

Mr. Alex Yarrington, who recently completed his course in electrical engineering at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute with high honors, has left for Pittsburgh, Pa., to fill an appointment with the Westinghouse Electrical and Manufacturing Company. Mr. Yarrington is a son of Mr. H. S. Yarrington, with H. W. Rountree & Co. of this city. He and Messrs. Lawrence Stern, Walter S. Blue and D. G. Robison, were all fortunate in securing appointments with the Westinghouse Company, which is regarded as one of the most desirable of all concerns with which young electrical engineers may begin their practicable careers. All these young men made fine records at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

Mr. Cave to Answer Sunday.

Rev. P. A. Cave, who recently handed in his resignation as pastor of Third Christian Church, will give his answer to his resignation of the matter next Sunday.

Mr. Cave is a very popular young pastor, and as soon as his resignation was received a committee was appointed to wait on him to ask him to reconsider the matter.

NOTED MEN ARE VICE PRESIDENTS

All Will Help Along Movement to Erect Joe Jefferson Monument.

CLEVELAND AND OTHERS

Former President, Mr. Stone and Editor Gilder Will Serve.

The proposition to erect a monument here to Joseph Jefferson is growing in favor and is being pushed with vigor. Recently Mr. T. M. Wortham, the originator of the idea, sent the appended letter to a number of distinguished men asking them to act as vice-presidents:

Dear Sir,—In this city it has been decided by the many admirers of the late Mr. Joseph Jefferson to erect a monument to his memory, as he began his career here. The monument is to represent Mr. Jefferson as Rip Van Winkle, after his twenty-year sleep, looking over this city in which he began his theatrical life (for while here in stock, one of our old citizens tells us, he was paid the princely sum of ten dollars a week).

The movement has progressed well. We have collected some money, with The Times-Dispatch as the custodian, and have offered of services from several artists who wish to make the study and also an offer of all the stone needed gratis.

It has become necessary now to have some organization and form an association, as we wish the association to be as strong as possible, one that will have representatives in all parts of the country because the man we would honor had friends everywhere English is spoken. The Governor of Virginia has consented to become the president of this association, and we trust that you will help us and the movement by serving as one of the vice-presidents. Kindly notify the writer at your earliest convenience.

Very truly,
T. M. WORTHAM.

Mr. T. M. Wortham,
Secretary, Richmond, Va.:

Dear Sir—Many thanks for the invitation to become a member of the Jefferson Memorial Committee of this city. This is a matter that naturally interests me very much, but there is one point that I must speak to you about before consenting to become a member of the committee. There must be some definite guarantee of the artistic character of the work. You tell me that you already have a number of services from several artists who wish to make the study. There ought to be an artistic committee to judge of the merit of the work submitted. Can you tell what steps have been or are to be taken in this direction?

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) R. W. GILDER.
In this matter I suggest your consulting Mr. Harrison S. Morris, of the Philadelphia Academy. He is not an artist, but knows them all.

Replies to Mr. Gilder.

June 24, 1905.
Mr. Richard Watson Gilder, Editorial Department, Century Magazine, Union Square, New York:

Dear Sir—I have yours of the 23d instant, with reference to the Joseph Jefferson Memorial Association. We have had offers of services from Mr. McMurdo, of New York, and a tacit offer from Mr. Edward S. Valentine, of this city, to make the study. Both of these gentlemen were lifelong friends of Mr. Jefferson. Mr. Valentine has the measurements of his face, and it is the measurements of the man from whom the idea originally sprang and those of us in Richmond, that Mr. Valentine make the study.

However, this is a matter which would naturally have to be passed upon by the artistic committee appointed for the purpose of judging the merits of the plans submitted.

Up to the present time we have collected a little money, and Mr. John Stewart Bryan and myself, with the assistance of our local newspapers, are perfecting the organization. This has been retarded somewhat here by the death of General Fitz Lee, as we did not think it advisable to push the matter at that time.

The writer has received an acceptance from Mr. Melville E. Stone, and is expecting to hear from Hon. Grover Cleveland, Daniel Frohman and others.

We will be pleased to have you make any suggestions you think proper. I will act upon your suggestion at once, and write to Mr. Harrison S. Morris at once.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) T. M. WORTHAM,
Secretary Pro Tem.

JOINT BROKEN UP.

John Jenkins Pays for Keeping a Disorderly House.

With the arrest and conviction of John A. Jenkins, a burly negro, the police of the First District believe they have gone a long way towards breaking up a disorderly house at No. 413 North Seventeenth Street. Men and women were seen to enter and leave the place Sunday night, and music was heard for several hours. The place is said to be the negroes of Seventeenth Street. Jenkins was fined $25 by Justice Crutchfield yesterday morning, and in default went back to the pen.

Andrew Smith trespassed on the premises of Bettie Thomas, his mother, and was of words took place between the son and mother before the inimitable Crutchfield. The offspring got thirty days in jail.

John Holmes paid $10 for smothering Elnora Banks. Holmes said that he only smothered her because he caught her acting coquely and told to her by a negro named Charlie Johnson.

Eddie Taylor went to the grand jury for hitting Frank Jones with a stick. James Wilson, a small negro, was dismissed of the charge of stabbing Arthur Green, and James Robertson, a bullet-headed African, will go to the pen tomorrow why he is supposed to be a suspicious character. Robertson has just finished a term of six months in the Henrico jail.

The regular drunks paid their fines.

CHARTERS GRANTED.

The Corporation Commission Authorizes New Concerns.

The State Corporation Commission yesterday granted the following charters: Standard Manufacturing Company (Incorporated), Suffolk, Va. Geo. H. Lewis, president; Norfolk, Va. J. White Woman Goes to Jail.

Charged with stealing a watch from the coat pocket of a negro man, Mrs. Mary E. Wharton, aged fifty-five years, was sentenced to ninety days in jail by Justice Crutchfield yesterday morning. The woman appeared in court with a black eye, the result of a fight in the slum district in which she lives. Her husband had made a desperate effort to save her from jail by saying that it was he who stole the watch, but the police would not believe his story. The woman pawned the watch within an hour after she had stolen it.

Outings to West Point.

Calvary Baptist and College Union Mission Sunday schools will take their annual outing to West Point, Friday, June 30th. The party will indulge in boating, fishing, bathing and base-ball, and an enjoyable time is promised all.

The train leaves the Southern station at 5:15 A. M.

The Third Christian Church Sunday school will give a scholars' outing to West Point, Thursday, June 29th. The party will be made to carry a large crowd.

Were Licensed to Wed.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to the following couples: Mr. William D. Field and Miss Ethel Whitlock; Mr. Thomas S. Leake and Miss Mary E. Cottrell; Mr. Herman T. Glass and Miss Willie B. Matinee This Afternoon.

The question, "Whose Baby is It?" will be explained at the Casino again this afternoon and evening, after which the musical comedy, "The Girl in the Shoe," will be presented. The affair is said to be one of those complicated, much-mixed and amusing creations, which entertain and amuse without treading upon the suggestive.

FOOD IN SERMONS.

A conscientious, hard-working and eminently successful clergyman writes: "I am glad to bear testimony to the pleasure and increased measure of efficiency and health that have come to me from adopting Grape-Nuts food as one of my articles of diet."

"For several years I was much distressed during the early part of each day by indigestion. My breakfast, usually consisting of oatmeal, milk and eggs seemed to turn sour and failed to digest. After dinner the headache and other symptoms following the breakfast would wear away, only to return, however, next morning."

"Having heard of Grape-Nuts food, I finally concluded to give it a fair trial. I quit the use of oatmeal and eggs and made my breakfast of Grape-Nuts, cream and Postum. The result was surprising in improved health and total absence of the distress that had, for so long, attended my breakfast. My digestion became once more satisfactory, the headaches ceased, and the old feeling of energy returned. Since that time, I have always had Grape-Nuts food on my breakfast table."

"Whereas before I began to use Grape-Nuts food, I was quite nervous and became easily wearied in the work of preparing sermons and in study, a marked improvement in this respect resulted from the change in my diet. I am convinced that Grape-Nuts food produced this result and helped me to a sturdy condition of mental and physical strength."

"I have known of several persons who were formerly troubled as I have been by indigestion, and who have been helped by Grape-Nuts food, on my recommendation among whom may be mentioned the Rev. —, now a missionary to China." Name given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Mich.

"There is a reason for this. 'The Road to Wellville,' in each pkg."

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

Elect Members of School Board.
Dr. Rucker's Resignation.

MAYOR SEVERELY CENSURED

Lawn Party at Cersley's Grove;
Many Present at Alluring Scene.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch.

No. 102 Hull Street.

The City Assembly and Board of Aldermen met in joint session last night for the purpose of electing four members on the school board and to consider the resignation of Dr. M. Pierre Rucker as president of the Board of Health.

The matter of the election of four members on the school board was first taken up.

Mr. F. S. Anderson was elected to fill the vacancy from the First Ward. Mr. Anderson is a clerk in the store of Mr. E. W. Weisiger. Mr. Scott McGee was elected from the Second Ward. Mr. J. B. Clifton from the Third, and Mr. R. C. Broadbent from the Fourth Ward. Mr. Anderson is the only new man elected, the other three having been incumbents. All the men were elected unanimously, there being no other nominations for the positions.

The resignation of Dr. M. P. Rucker was then taken up and discussed at length. At first it was moved to table it, in order to induce its withdrawal and enable Dr. Rucker to resume the presidency of the Board of Health on his return from Germany. Mr. Wakefield, in a speech in support of his motion, stated in the highest terms of Dr. Rucker as being a most able, consistent and efficient officer.

After much discussion pro and con, it was decided that the best way out of the difficulty was to reject the resignation. This was done, and Dr. E. T. Rucker, father of the incumbent, was appointed chairman of the Board of Health.

This settles a matter that has long been under consideration by the assembly.

The Mayor Censured.

After the joint meeting had adjourned, one of the prominent members of the City Assembly, in discussing the action of the Mayor in giving merchants who had forgotten to get out their licenses on the date prescribed, on Monday, said, and wished it to be recorded as coming from him, that "had the Mayor used a little discretion it would not have been necessary to force the merchants to get out their licenses, and that the Mayor had made public some utterances to the effect that he was not responsible for the late; that the Mayor had by the legislative body of the city, and that this body alone was to be held responsible. Some bitter complaints were made about the affair, and the Mayor was severely censured for his alleged utterances."

Lawn Party at Cersley's.

The largest crowd of the week was in attendance last night at the lawn party held at Cersley's Grove. The place was prettily decorated with Japanese lanterns which illumined the lawn with beautiful effect, and beneath whose soft glow refreshment tables were set in most alluring style.

Music was furnished by a string band from Church Hill. The members of which are Messrs. James, Marable, Frank, Heyward and Meier. A duet was also rendered by two young ladies from Church Hill. The members of the West End Methodist Church turned out en masse, determined each to increase the funds for the organ according to the dimensions of his pocket-book.

The saying: "Who steals my purse, steals trash," would not have been appropriate to the occasion, for all purses seemed to be adequately provided with the wherewithal to defray the expenses incidental to a hearty consumption of ice cream, cake and the large assortment of fruits.

The programme will be varied to-night with solos by Miss Ida Butler, Miss Clarence Fortune and a duet by Miss Florence Moore and Miss Sarah Redford.

Improving the Church.

Fifth Street Methodist Church is being fitted up with electric lights, a long felt want, by the pastor, Rev. A. B. Sharpe, and his congregation. The wiring is in progress now, which it is hoped will soon be completed, when the lights will be installed. The church will be the usual weekly services to-night, as the church is still in the hands of the workmen.

Personals and Briefs.

Mrs. M. W. Patram, of No. 113 East Eleventh Street, is a little better.
